ONLINE RESOURCES FOR INDIVIDUALS LIVING WITH YOUNG ONSET DEMENTIA

Have you been diagnosed with young onset dementia, or do you care for someone with young onset dementia?

We want to hear from you!

What is involved?

A 20-40-minute interview via Skype or a telephone call with the researcher.

We will discuss:

- How you currently use the internet
- How you think online resources could be improved to support the wellbeing of individuals with young onset dementia.

Anonymity and confidentiality will be maintained.
